Attend Mountain Day

Mountain Day is next Wednesday, October 12th. That means it's only a week before we can get out and enjoy the fine autumn weather we've been having.

There are many reasons why you should attend Mountain Day. New students will have an opportunity to meet and make new friends. Some of our older students will have a chance to have an all day "bull-session" instead of the ten minute ones heard here on campus. Further, Dean Bonney promises a bountiful and palatable amount of food. However, there is one thing we'd like to point out. The cost of Mountain Day is borne by us, the students, in that we contribute to the Student Activity Fund. Inasmuch as you are paying indirectly for this activity, why stay home?

As a preliminary to Mountain Day, the Mountain Day Dance will be held in the auditorium at 8:00 PM, Tuesday, October 11th. In line with the informality of Mountain Day the dance will be cabaret style, a come as you are affair. Vince Battles and his combo will furnish the music. Vince has imported some outside musicians so it should be a real "ball". So get your wives and girls and don't forget the admission charge of fifty cents (50¢) per couple.

SENIOR SMOKER SENSATIONAL SUCCESS (E-1 students, this is alliteration)

Forty members of the senior class attended their smoker last Wednesday evening. It was the first social event of the season and things have started off on the right foot as the smoker was a success in every aspect.

First, did you notice the attendance? Forty present out of a class of fifty-five or a percentage of 72.73% (we struggled thru Dean Bonney's E-1 class) is a good attendance. We seniors think our seniors, the freshmen and pre-college students, will have to go far to surpass this when they have their smoker.

And the food! First, the appetites were whetted by a savory soup; followed by a main course of tender, delicious ham, a very esculent salad and crispy potato chips. This was topped with flaky apple and/or cherry pie as you desired. For the pleasure of our bon vivants! present seconds and thirds were permitted.

(Over)

After everybody had eaten, small informal groups formed and discussed existing problems. This produced many suggestions and allowed both members of the faculty and students alike to better understand the problems. There were many suggestions proffered and we hope some will be adopted.

The seniors wish to thank the faculty, especially Mr. Lawrence, our master of the culinary art, for their supervision of the smoker. Also thanks to the cafeteria ladies for the preparation of the excellent meal.

WELCOME BACK

We are glad to see that a few students are giving a little of their time to bring us the "Rag" for a second year. The "Newsance" and "Rag" will cooperate in striving to keep all students well informed of the happenings and mishappenings here on campus. The "Newsance" will be out every Wednesday morning before assembly and the "Rag" will keep everyone up to date with the late week happenings by appearing on Thursday or Friday. These are your papers! Any suggestions or criticism will be welcomed by both.

TODAY'S ASSEMBLY - Frankly, we don't know much about today's assembly. However, we do know that from now on it will be held at 10:15 AM. Also attendance cards will be in the mail boxes. CHAPEL SERVICE - Chapel service will be held at 10:00 AM, before assembly, this morning and every following Wednesday. We are in hopes of seeing a large turnout every week.

VETERAN'S - Some veterans still haven't signed their VA forms which are at the office. All we can say is, "Well, it's your money."

JOBS - Mr. Keenan still has Saturday job opportunities available for one dollar plus per hour. All students desiring work for Christmas vacation at the Post Office should file their applications now. The deadline is October 22d. Veterans have preference.

PJC NEWS - There will be a meeting of the PJC News tonight at the home of Mr. Jaques, 312 Pine St., So. Portland, at 7:30 PM. Everyone is welcome. Writers and advertising agents are needed. For transportation see Gleynn Brooks.

RADIO CLUB - Bob Flynn has an appointment with the program director of WGAN to set a time for our fifteen minute campus news program.

OUTING CLUB - The Outing Club will hold a meeting today at 9:50 AM in Room 302 for the purpose of elections. New members are welcome.

GOLF TEAM - Our golf team opposes Gorham State Teacher's College team at Riverside Country Club today at 1:30 PM.

OUR APOLOGIES

We apologize for not having any political news in this edition but the scene is so fluid and also secretive our reporters didn't find out much. Next week we hope to have the complete story.
